Students can play these pencil and paper games again and again with different results.

Directions for two or more players:
1. Choose one player to be the reader; each remaining player is a writer.
2. The reader asks each writer in turn to call out a word for a different blank in Story 1.
3. When all the blanks are filled, the reader reads the completed story to the other players.
4. Repeat Steps 1–3 for Story 2.

Story 1: Heartsville County Fair

Each ______________________ the Heart Heroes of Heartsville __________________________ to the county fair. The fair lasts for ___________ days.

There are __________________ rides, ___________________ animals, and __________________ events. There is a/an __________________-throwing contest. There is also a/an ____________________ -eating contest. The Heart Heroes are singing ______________________ in the talent show. Baxter hopes to win first prize with a 100-pound ______________. Every year, Hearty asks to ride the __________________. Last year they fell off and broke their ____________________. Marley had to __________________ Dream to the __________________________. Breeze and Hydro love riding the big ____________________________. Frankie is hoping to see ____________________ at the fair this year. Everyone wears __________________ to the fair. Why not get a/an __________________ and come to this year’s fair?

Dear ______________________________ ,

Camp Happy Heart is lots of fun. I did forget to bring my ______________________________ , but so far no one has noticed. Yesterday, I took a ______________________________ lesson. After the lesson, my ______________________________ was very sore! Today we are walking to ______________________________ and back. Then tonight we will toast ____________________________ over the campfire and tell ______________________________ stories. Last night, Counselor Carl asked ______________________________ to pretend to be a/an ______________________________. I laughed so hard ______________________________ squirted out of my nose! Counselor asked me to role-play ______________________________ and save the campers from a giant ______________________________. It was lots of fun. When you arrive on ______________________________ , I will serve you the ______________________________ and ____________________________ vegetables I grew this summer. I will also show you my ____________________________ ninja moves. Be sure to honk the ______________________________ when you arrive and I’ll ______________________________ out to meet you!

Sincerely,

____________________________

Student Name: ______________________________ Date: ______________________________
Signature of family member: ______________________________

© Copyright 2022 American Heart Association, Inc., a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit. All rights reserved. Kids Heart Challenge is a trademark of the AHA. Unauthorized use prohibited.