HEART HERO

Brinley

Survivor, 7th Grade

Brinley was born with several heart defects including Tricuspid Atresia and Transposition of the Great Arteries, but that does not stop her from staying active by playing softball, volleyball, and cheer. After her three open heart surgeries, Brinley keeps her heart healthy by taking medicine each day and eating healthy foods. Brinley's parents are grateful that the American Heart Association helped prepare them to support their daughter on her heart journey.
